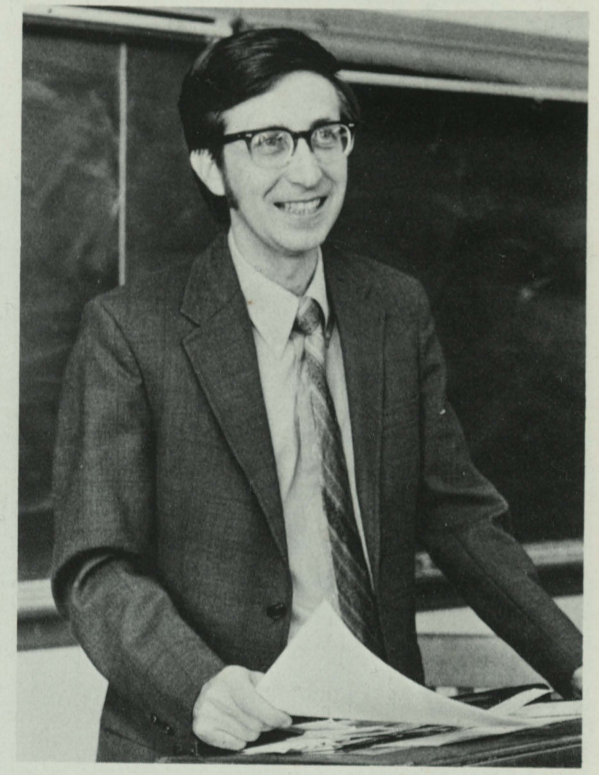
DEDICATION

With a deep sense of pride and honor, the class of 1972 dedicates the Harvester to Mr. Jerome DuJordan. From the time our "horn of plenty" was a mere shell, your helpfulness, patience, and consideration have filled this void with each year's accomplishments and the culmination of the grand finale—our Prom and Graduation.

We thank you, Mr. DuJordan for all of your time and efforts on our behalf. May life be good to you, may your students improve each year, and may they appreciate you earlier than we did.



MR. JEROME DUJORDAN

To show all of our appreciation for all the time and patience that Mrs. Stegall has shown our class this year working on the yearbook, we dedicate it to her. Her never-ending efforts have guided us through the rough times and helped us look forward to our set goals. We are honored to dedicate this yearbook to her, and hope it shall bring her memories of our class. Her meaningful goals will help each and everyone of our lives.

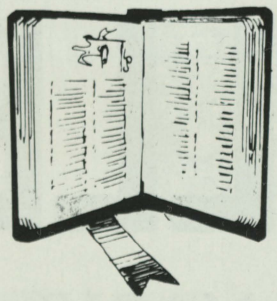
A Memorial

Janet Marie Hastings



"The Lord is my shepherd."

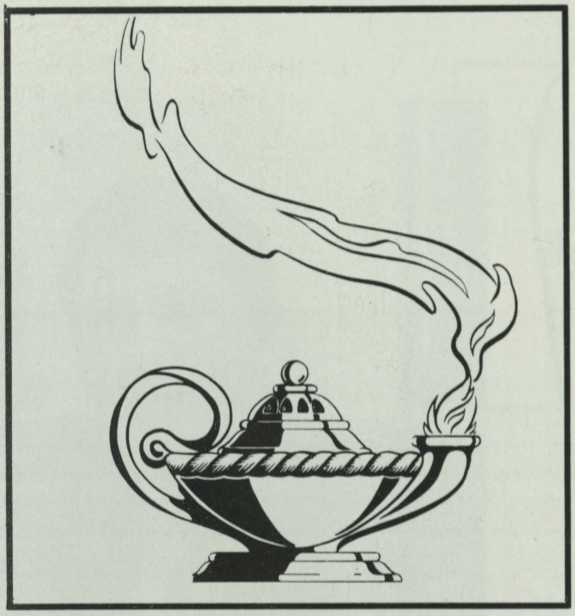
Psalm 23

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills."

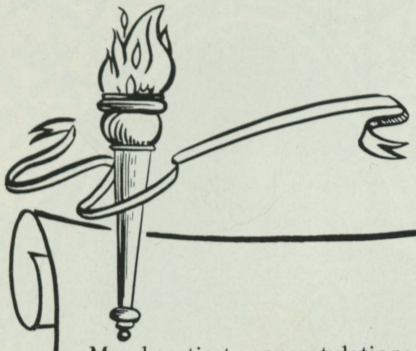
Psalm 121

Janet was taken from us in the prime of her young and beautiful life. We know not why nor should we question the wisdom of God. Although we shall miss her physical presence, her memory will remain in our hearts and minds. To this end may we find comfort in the Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi:

"Lord, make me an instrument of Thy Peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.
Divine Master, grant That I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
It is in dying that we are born to eternal life."



ADMINISTRATION



My heartiest congratulations to the Class of 1972. You have earned your place with those who have gone before you in receiving your diploma. I hope that the time you have spent here has been worthwhile in providing you with the knowledge and attitudes which you will need to find fulfillment in the careers you have chosen. Individually and collectively you will be missed as members of the student body.

May God bless you as you strive to make your life a meaningful and worthwhile experience.

We began, as all other classes, in the seventh grade. That year and also the eighth grade were dedicated to our studies and money-making events. The highlight of the eighth grade was a field trip to Philadelphia which involved the entire class.

Our class presented entertainment in the May Day exercises in the years 1968-1971.

Our first year of senior high school saw us participating on our first major financial endeavor. This was a dance entitled "Sock-hop" which was held in the gymnasium. That same year we took a trip to Wallops Island and the NASA establishment.

In the tenth grade we sponsored another dance, "The Psychedelic Shack." Music was provided by "The Four Peace Band."

Our lives became more hectic as we approached our senior year. Being Juniors, we were assigned the task of presenting the Junior-Senior Banquet. First we sponsored the dance "Soul Cell" to provide us with funds for this endeavor.

The banquet, with the theme "Oriental Gardens", was presented on the eleventh of May, 1971. Entertainment was provided by Susan Humphreys and Donna Ennis. Dubious Awards were given to the Seniors.

Our senior year was a very busy but enjoyable span of time. Our first order of business was the Christmas Dance. Given the name "Santa's Workshop", the auditorium was embellished as a winter scene, with the stage pictured as a store window at Christmas time. Music was supplied by "Looneytunes."

The annual P.O.D. trip, was on the twenty-eighth of April. This was an excursion in the Mall such as the Smithsonian Institute. Our next stop was the National Museum of Wax and from there we visited the Washington Zoo. Then we went to Baltimore where we dined at Haussner's Restaurant. Afterwards we went to Memorial Stadium and enjoyed a Baltimore Oriole–California Angels baseball game. The Orioles won 12-2 and then we returned home.

Next on the agenda was May Day, which was held on the fifth of May. The May court was decorated with pink and white streamers. The girls walked through a multi-colored gazebo to meet their escorts. Entertainment was provided by different grades in the school.

"Colour My World", our Senior Prom, was presented on the twentieth of May. Music was provided by "Southern Iron". Rose trellises ornamented the entrance to the gymnasium. Once inside, the observer viewed a false ceiling of crepe paper and a gazebo in the middle of the dance floor. The dance lasted from nine o'clock until midnight.

Our final activities were Baccalaureate and Commencement. These were on the twenty-sixth of May and the second of June respectively.

The six years that this class has been together have seen these wonderful events that will stay in our minds 'til eternity.

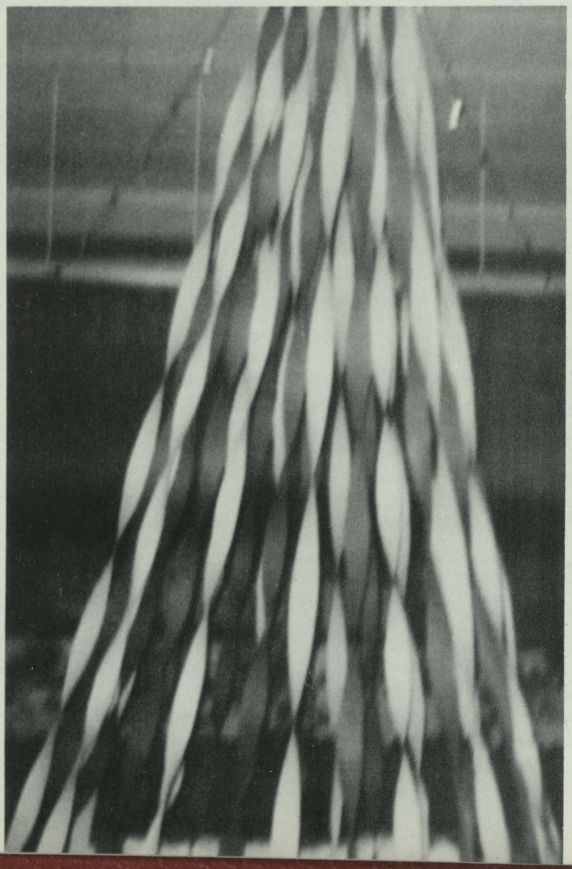
Jeff White wills Dale Reed his meaness in his senior year.

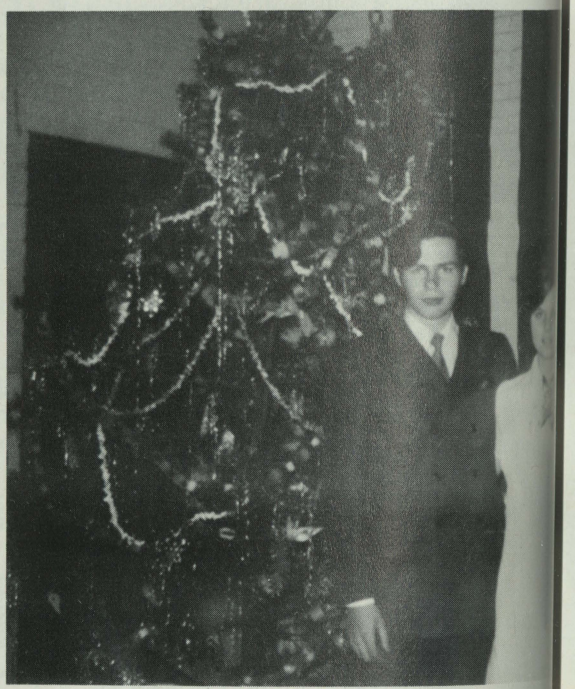
Santa's Workshop opened at 8 P.M. on Friday night, December 3, 1971.

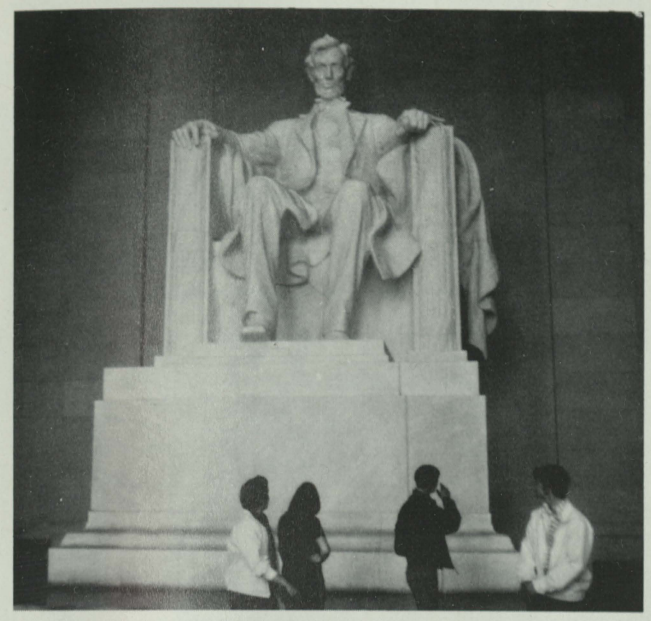
The colorful decorations included a replica of a Christmas tree composed of red and white streamers extending from the ceiling to the floor. Embankments of snow and holly surrounded this center of attraction. An authentic Christmas tree stood in one corner with Santa's gifts under its green branches. "Santa's Workshop" was portrayed on the stage with evidence of his handiwork everywhere.

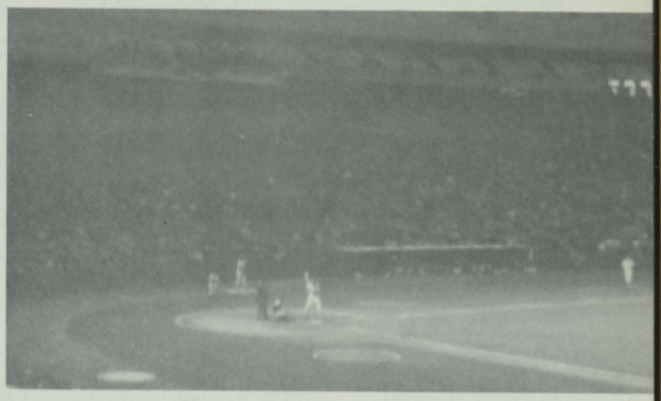
Music for this extravaganza was furnished by the "Looneytunes" from Millsboro, Delaware. Dancing was enjoyed by all the couples attending until Santa's Workshop closed at 11 P.M.

SANTA'S WORKSHOP









On April 28, 1972, the P.O.D. class took a trip to Washington, D.C. and Baltimore. Our journey toward Washington began at 7 a.m. when we left Pittsville on a chartered bus.

Our itinerary was made up of a long list of interesting places and things we intended to see. The first place on the agenda was the Mall Area where we visited the Washington Monument and the Smithsonian Institute. Then we went through the Wax Museum and the Washington Zoo.

Upon leaving Washington, we made our way toward Baltimore where we had reservations "to dine in style" at the famous Haussner's Restaurant. After enjoying a savory dinner in this plush restaurant, we went to Memorial Stadium to see the famous Baltimore Orioles defeat the California Angels 12 to 2.

It was late when we returned to Pittsville. The students and our chaperones, Miss Gwen Ogden and Mr. Jerry DuJordan, were tired from the long day and evening, but our minds were filled with pleasant memories.

THE JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held on Saturday night, May 13, 1972 at six-thirty in the auditorium. The theme for this year's banquet was "Life's Illusions."

The menu consisted of roast beef, mashed potatoes, green peas, cole slaw, apple rings, rolls, and raspberry jello for dessert.

The entertainment consisted of Pat Spencer singing, "I Don't Know How To Love Him" and David Farlow singing "House of the Rising Sun" and a song written and composed by John Littleton. The final entertainment for the evening consisted of the A.A. Awards given by the Junior Class to the Seniors to get them started off in life or to remind them of the past years.

Cecil Short, Dominic La Regina, Charles Dispoto, Chairman, Philip Jackson, Richard D. Greig, Robert B. Nichols, and Brother Stephen Pleva, Assistant Chairman

After many months of planning and working, "D-Day" finally arrived. The evaluation committee arrived on schedule to visit Pittsville School, to talk with the administrative staff, the teachers and the students. Festivities began with a banquet given in honor of the visiting committee–the menu was typically Eastern Shore. This social event provided the opportunity for the visitors and staff members to become acquainted.

By the time of this printing hopefully we shall have confirmation of the outcome of the evaluation of the school.

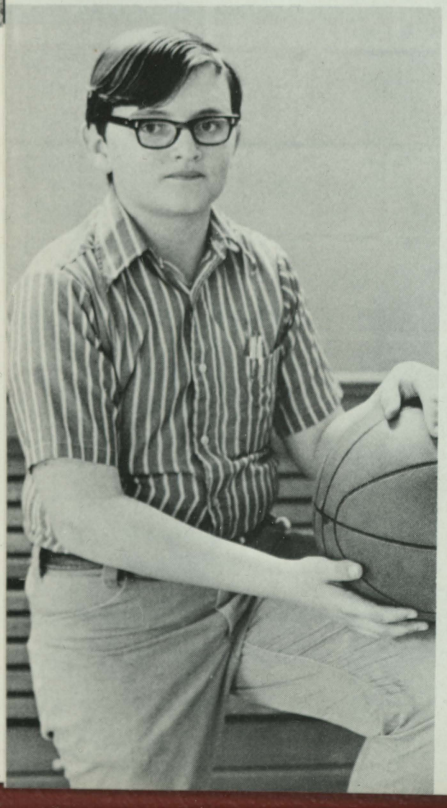
JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Manager–David Lewis
Scorekeeper–Tommy Roman



At a time when all of young America is in doubt and questions every move of the so-called establishment, so it was at Pittsville this year. Across our nation many college coaches found themselves faced with the new situations to which they were not accustomed. Their solutions were as varied as the situations were. Coach Bob Koontz found himself among the unfortunates who were faced with the discipline problems. After much thought and some consultation, a move was taken by Coach Koontz which became very unpopular. At first glance it would appear that it was a disastrous move. However, the true effect can't be measured until a later time when the end result of those who were involved can be evaluated.

The purpose of the Junior High Basketball is to teach the fundamentals of basketball and good sportsmanship, to build individual character, and to accept responsibility. Without these fully developed attributes, man is only part of his being and isn't utilizing himself fully.

Not everyone can be good in all phases, but each one has something that he can contribute. If each one does his "thing", then the team will prosper. So it is in life.

As our Senior year comes to an end, the memories recorded within our yearbook will go with us and remain with us as we enter our adult life. Each student will strive toward reaching his special goal and attaining the highest achievements of which he is capable.

And so with a fond farewell, may we say adios, au revoir, auf wiedersehen.
